As the World AIDS Day celebrations continued to resonate through SGK Govt Degree College in Vinukonda, a vibrant Rangoli competition took center stage on November 29th, 2023. With the theme centered on "Awareness on HIV/AIDS" 30 talented students participated, infusing traditional art with modern-day relevance to raise awareness about this critical global health issue.

The college premises buzzed with creativity as students meticulously crafted intricate Rangoli designs, each piece serving as a canvas to convey messages of awareness and prevention regarding HIV/AIDS.

The participants displayed remarkable skill and creativity, blending vibrant colors and symbolic patterns to symbolize the importance of understanding, empathy, and proactive measures in combating the spread of HIV/AIDS.

After a thorough evaluation, the deserving winners were announced:

K. Naga Lakshmi, III B.Sc (M.P.Cs)

G. Roshan, III B.Sc (M.P.Cs)

Their Rangoli designs were exemplary, beautifully merging traditional art with a contemporary message, effectively spreading awareness about HIV/AIDS within the college community.

This competition not only highlighted the artistic prowess of the students but also served as a platform to ignite discussions and promote understanding regarding the challenges posed by HIV/AIDS.

SGK Govt Degree College, Vinukonda, extends appreciation to all participants for their dedication in creatively addressing this crucial health issue through Rangoli art. Their efforts contributed significantly to raising awareness and fostering a more informed and compassionate community.

The event emphasized the potency of art in communicating critical messages and underlined the importance of collective action in combating HIV/AIDS.

The college eagerly anticipates further impactful activities and engagements in the ongoing World AIDS Day celebrations.
