Background of the Program:

Mrs.Sarojini Naidu, (13 February 1879 – 2 March 1949)^[1] was an Indian political activist and poet who served as the first,Governor of United Provinces after Independence. She played an important role in the Indian freedom movement against the . British Raj. She was the first indian woman to be president of the Indian National Congress and appointed as governor of a state. Naidu's literary work as a poet earned her the nickname the "Nightingale of India" by Gandhi because of the colour, imagery and lyrical quality of her poetry. Her oeuvre includes both children's poems and others written on more serious themes including patriotism and tragedy. Some of her well-known works include:

- 1.The Golden Threshold
- 2.The Broken Wing.....etc
