Brief Description:

National Consumers' Rights Day in India is observed on December 24th every year. The day is celebrated to raise awareness about consumer rights and the need to protect them. It commemorates the enactment of the Consumer Protection Act, 1986, which aims to safeguard the interests of consumers in India.

Consumer rights include the right to be informed, the right to choose, the right to be heard, the right to seek redressal, and the right to consumer education. Various events and activities are organized on National Consumers' Rights Day to educate people about their rights as consumers and to promote a fair and transparent marketplace.

National Consumers Rights Day was observed on 24th December in SGK Government Degree College, Vinukonda. Department of Commerce in association with Department of Economics formed Consumers Club and Celebrated National Consumers Rights Day on 22.12.2023 with staff and students.
